

Caribbean Trade Mission & Presentation of Diamond Jubilee Scholarship

May 2015: Kisserup was contracted to arrange B2B matchmaking, organize logistics, and coordinate networking opportunities for a private sector Trade

Mission to the Caribbean. Kisserup worked with BizTactics Jamaica on this mission and twelve participants from Nova Scotia's private sector and universities participated. Three Nova Scotia companies participating took part in the presentation of scholarships to this year's recipients of the Canadian Queen Elizabeth II (QES) Diamond Jubilee Scholarship Programme at the University of Technology in Jamaica on May 11, 2015. The delegates included Dr. Dawn Jutla from Saint Mary's University's Sobey School of Business, Ms. Maureen Woodhouse from Saint Mary's University, and Mr. Tim Cranston of Natural Ocean and Ms. Jennifer Cormier representing Atlantic Canada Opportunities Agency.

Kisserup Welcomes Daniel Alleyne to the team!

June 2015: Kisserup is pleased to have Daniel Alleyne join the Kisserup team on a co-operative education work term. Daniel, originally from Barbados, is a Bachelor of Commerce student from Dalhousie University in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Majoring in international business, Daniel has worked as a student mentor, facilitated workshops, and also spent a year studying abroad in China. We look forward to be working with Daniel. For more information, please see www.kisserup.com

OUTSTANDING ENTREPRENEURS - GET TO KNOW

May 2015: Mr. Maike Carretero of Greenland Ice, which creates specialty ice creams, won an entrepreneurship competition that took place during the 2015 Future Greenland conference in May, in Nuuk Greenland. The competition was made possible by the Sermersooq Business Council. The conference, which is held every two years, aims to highlight the need for a healthy and entrepreneurial Greenlandic business environment as the basis for increased exports and economic growth in Greenland. In addition to the cash prize, Greenland Ice is also partnered with mentors to assist in future export ventures. For more information, please see www.business.gl/

Southern Trade Lane Incoming Buyers Mission

June 2015: Kisserup was hired by Community Business Development Corporation Charlotte – Kings (CBDC) to conduct in-market research, lead generation, and organize buyer recruitment from the Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, Costa Rica and Honduras to take part in an incoming buyer's mission to New Brunswick, Canada. The project was supported by CBDC Charlotte – Kings, Atlantic Canada Opportunities Agency (ACOA), Opportunities New Brunswick (ONB), and the Port of Saint John. For more information visit <http://www.southerntradelane.ca/>.

Southern Trade Lane Buyers Mission

A multi-sector in-coming mission of buyers from Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Honduras, Puerto Rico and Florida

North America

1673 Barrington Street
Suite 300
Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada B3J 1Z9
Telephone: (902) 405-3880

www.kisserup.com

Europe

Rådhuspladsen 16
1550 Copenhagen
Denmark, Europe
Telephone: (+45) 88-96-87-41