Kisserup International Trade Roots nominated for Halifax Business Awards

Kisserup International Trade Roots has been nominated in the category for International Business of the Year for the Halifax Business Awards. The annual event, hosted by the Halifax Chamber of Commerce, recognizes risk takers and celebrates successes in the business community.

This is the second time in two years that Kisserup has been nominated in this category. Companies are nominated by Chamber staff or through entries from the business community.

The Gala for the awards will take place Thursday, January 28, 2016 at The World Trade and Convention Centre in Halifax, Nova Scotia.
