

Kisserup signs MOU with the University of the West Indies

(15 January-2009) Kisserup International Trade Roots Inc. is pleased to announce the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the University of the West Indies (UWI) Consulting Inc., which has its headquarters in Castries, St. Lucia and offices at Mona (Jamaica), St. Augustine (Trinidad and Tobago) and Cave Hill (Barbados).

“UWI has produced most of the region’s prime ministers, has helped to shape the politics, culture and identity of the Caribbean and boasts thousands of graduates who are influential in every walk of life throughout the region and the Diaspora.” said Professor E. Nigel Harris, UWI Vice Chancellor and Chairman of the Board of UWI Consulting at the launch of UWI Consulting Inc.

Kisserup and UWI Inc., in collaboration with the Mona School of Business, will work together to jointly undertake trade facilitation and training in the Caribbean. A number of projects for 2009 have been identified and this formal agreement is to clarify objectives and the role of each party.

Kisserup continues to expand their client base in the Caribbean. “We consider it a great honor and privilege to be associated with UWI and look forward to working together” said Kisserup President and Founder Pernille Fischer Boulter.

UWI Consulting Inc. is a subsidiary of The University of the West Indies (UWI), which draws on the expertise at the University and provides advisory and capacity-building services across the region and internationally. UWI Consulting Inc. focuses on policy analysis and development, programme management and project implementation, governance and organization management in a wide range of disciplines. The company offers strategic advice, consultancy and related services on all aspects of management and innovation to businesses, government, international agencies and community organizations.
