

Increasing cross-border trade in services under the Canada-Honduras Free Trade Agreement (FTA)

Kisserup has been contracted to provide trade support for one of Honduras' key service sectors, the tourism sector. Kisserup and our local partners will work to strengthen and grow the ecotourism industry with the aim to increase bird-based tourism in Honduras. Through technical trade assistance and local capacity building, this sub-project will be a trade promotion initiative part of the Canada-Americas Trade Related Technical Assistance Program (CATRTA) managed by the Conference Board of Canada (CBOC).

Kisserup welcomes back Mike Gimblett

Kisserup is delighted to welcome back Mike as Operations Manager. Mike is a professional with a passion for supporting and empowering entrepreneurs and small business owners. He has gained experience working with a variety of sectors: energy, occupational health & safety, construction, logistics, training, food and beverages, media and event promotions. In 2007 he completed his Post-Graduate Diploma in Human Resource Management, gaining valuable insight into the evolving international labour market. For more information, please see: www.kisserup.com

EMBA Trade Mission to Vietnam

Kisserup has been contracted to lead the matchmaking and logistics services for an EMBA Sobey School of Business trade mission to Vietnam in March 2017. Funded by the Atlantic Canada Opportunities Agency, ACOA, and executed by the Sobey School of Business, multi-sector mission, EMBA students representing Atlantic Canadian companies from various economic sectors of goods and services will participate in B2B meetings Vietnam. Kisserup has partnered with the Vietnam Embassy to Canada, Vietrade and Tran Nguyen for this project. For more information please visit: <http://www.smu.ca/academics/sobey/>

OUTSTANDING ENTREPRENEURS - GET TO KNOW:

Joanne and Ron Schmidt turned their dreams into reality in 1994 when they founded

Galloping Cows Fine Foods. They started out small, selling their delightful sauces and preserves around their home base in Nova Scotia,

Galloping Cows
• FINE FOODS •

Canada. Years of hard work and dedication have transformed Galloping Cows from a small country market to the darling of fine foods retailers across the country and yes, all the way to the Oscars! For more information, see: <http://gallopingcows.com>

Kisserup welcomes Judith Dardon

Kisserup is very excited to add Judith to our team. Judith has over 10 years' experience in project and event management, with 6 years specifically focused on the philanthropic and non-profit industry. Through working with various organizations, Judith has strong skills in managing multiple projects and timelines. She has expertise that stretches across multiple sectors, including, renewable energy, Christmas trees, agri foods, international trade, to name a few. Originally from Mexico City, Judith is fluent in Spanish and English and also speaks Italian. For more information, please see: www.kisserup.com

Forum for International Trade Training

Kisserup has been contracted CBDC and NSBI as one of the delivery partners to facilitate FITT Training across Nova Scotia, Canada. The FITT Going Global Workshops and the Certified International Trade Professional, CITP, course will be delivered across Nova Scotia as a tool to assist SME in the exporting needs. FITT is the he world's leading export/import training, for more information on the training schedule and to sign up, please see: <https://www.novascotiabusiness.com/export/export-development-education>